LEAD AND MANAGE IN THE BUSINESS OF HEALTH CARE

The health sector is rapidly evolving into one of the most complex, dynamic and pressured industries of the 21st century. Demand is growing for leaders who possess the business knowledge and skills needed to successfully adapt to these rapid changes. Organizations require increased efficiency and tailored approaches to improving service delivery, patient and provider relationships, negotiating with insurance companies, cost management, marketing and more.

You can be at the right place at the right time. Not by coincidence, but by choice. Pursue an MBA as the next step in your professional and personal development. The Executive MBA in Health Sector Management and Policy program from the University of Miami School of Business Administration, strategically positioned at the crossroads of the Americas in the heart of South Florida's medical community, can empower you to achieve success in your company, in your city and in the world.

EXECUTIVE MBA IN HEALTH SECTOR MANAGEMENT AND POLICY

Position yourself to succeed with the region's longest-running and only fully-accredited* Executive MBA program designed exclusively for physicians, nurses, hospital administrators and other executives in medical and health care organizations.

Graduates from this specialized Executive MBA program are uniquely well-positioned to respond to the challenges and opportunities faced by group practices, hospitals, government agencies, biotechnology and pharmaceutical firms, insurance companies, managed care organizations and medical device companies.

The curriculum leverages UM's longstanding leadership in business education, research, health sector management, clinical care and policy. Participants learn core business principles and practical administrative skills such as management and decision-making, as well as broad and theoretical perspectives as they apply to the industry. UM faculty members are world-class scholars and consultants in their respective fields.

Combining its strengths in graduate business education and its close relationships with the South Florida health care community, this dynamic Executive MBA in Health Sector Management and Policy is a leading program of its type.

*The University of Miami Executive MBA in Health Sector Management and Policy program is one of just a handful of such programs to be accredited by both AACSB International – The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business – and CAHME – the Commission on Accreditation of Healthcare Management Education. It is the ONLY program in South Florida to have earned both such accreditations.
